

CONTENTS

Cover Page

Preamble

Contents

Definitions

Introduction

T.C.G.S.A. and Tourism

Methodology

Chapter One: What is Accessibility?

1. Background and History of Accessible Design
2. Contemporary Trends in Universal Design
3. The South African Context

Chapter Two: What is required and how is it done?

Chapter Three: Design guidance and practical help

1. Introduction
2. Designing from scratch
3. Meeting the needs of Universal Access
4. Meeting the needs of people with sensory impairments: visual
5. Meeting the needs of people with sensory impairments: hearing
6. Installing an induction loop.
7. Approach, including external areas
8. Car parking space and shelter
9. Walkways and ramps
10. Kerb cut
11. Stepped approaches
12. Stairs
13. Lifts
14. Handrails
15. Entrances, including lobbies
16. Internal planning: circulation including reception
17. Thresholds, doorways and doors

- 18. Inclusive/Universally accessible bedrooms
- 19. Non-inclusive bedrooms
- 20. Inclusive/Universally accessible lavatories and bathrooms
- 21. Non-inclusive lavatories and bathrooms
- 22. Restaurants, bars and conference facilities
- 23. Finishes
- 24. Controls for use by disabled people
- 25. Communications
- 26. Signals and warnings for people with impaired sight or impaired hearing
- 27. Means of Escape
- 28. Signs
- 29. Lighting
- 30. Self-catering facilities, including kitchens
- 31. Other recommendations

Chapter Four: Ways forward – toward an accessible world

Chapter Five: Staff training and marketing

- 1. Staff training
- 2. Marketing accessibility
- 3. Marketing resources

Bibliography